TAI CHI AND QI GONG, BEGINNING & INTERMEDIATE

Tai Chi, sometimes referred to as meditation in motion, is a slow-moving martial art. It is a noncompetitive, self-paced system of defined postures, flowing gracefully from one to the next without stopping. The practice of Tai Chi has been known to reduce anxiety, improve balance, flexibility, focus, build the immune system, and overall health. Scientific studies have proven Tai Chi to reduce stiffness and pain in people with arthritis and help with Parkinson's symptoms. Beginners will enjoy the Sun Style because of its high stances and easy postures. Simple Qi gong sets are included to loosen, stretch, and open the joints and tendons. This in-person class will follow all state and local mandates. An email regarding safety procedures and protocols will be sent prior to the start of class.

REGISTRATION

Registration received by mail, or in person will be processed by 5PM the next business day. The best way to ensure that your registration is processed immediately is by using our online registration system at communityhouse.asapconnected.com.

SCHEDULING

- While we take great care to ensure the accuracy of the information in our printed materials, we reserve the right to make changes to the information printed in this document. The most up to date information is available on our online registration system.
- The Community House makes every effort to avoid scheduling programs or events on religious holidays. Anyone affected will be offered the option of attending a session of the same program with the same instructor on a different date within the catalog dates as a make-up, or receiving a prorated refund of the series fee for the date that will be missed.

REFUNDS / CREDITS / CANCELLATION OF CLASSES

- Two weeks prior to any class, registration is reviewed to determine if the enrollment is sufficient to hold the class. We encourage you to register early and ask that you not wait until the day of the first class to register. Full refunds will be issued for courses that are cancelled due to insufficient registration. Refunds are processed by the issuance of a check (if paid by cash/check) or by credit card (if paid by credit card) within 5 to 10 business days after the request.
- If you cannot attend a multiple session class, you may request a class credit 72 hours or more before the first class in a series is to be held. Class credit may be applied toward the cost of any future class within the calendar year of the credit issuance. If you contact The Community House less than 72 hours of the class start time, or after the class has occurred, you are not entitled to a credit of any kind. No refund for One Session Classes, Enrichment Activities, Lectures or Workshops only when they are cancelled by The Community House.
- The Community House reserves the right to cancel any classes or programs without notice especially for the purpose of protecting the health, safety and well-being of others. If this occurs, you will be given a credit to be applied toward the cost of any future class within the calendar year of the credit issuance. No refunds will be issued.

EMERGENCY CLOSINGS & INCLEMENT WEATHER POLICY

In order to ensure safety of our employees and guests, The Community House may close due to weather, road conditions or facility malfunctions.

Please check the website for complete details on class cancellations: communityhouse.com.

MEDIA RELEASE
